

PALMER MEMORIAL EPISCOPAL CHURCH

JERUSALEM PEACE BUILDERS (JPB): is an interfaith, non-profit organization with a mission to create a better future for humanity across religions, cultures, and nationalities. Their year-round, interfaith programs focus on uniting Israelis, Palestinians, and Americans and providing them with the opportunities, relationships, and skills they need to become future leaders for peace. Each summer, JPB teens visit Houston and stay at Palmer while visiting local faith communities and sharing their message of hope and peace.

ARCHWAY ACADEMY: Archway Academy is the largest recover high school in the US. They are a close-knit group of teachers, recovery experts, and students working in tandem to create a welcoming campus on the grounds of Palmer, that not only physically challenges its students to remain sober, but stretches their expectations socially, spiritually, intellectually, and academically. The school provides a structured place for teens to continue both their recovery and their education without compromising either. 94% of Archway seniors attend college after graduation.
